

PACE Youth Theatre Bursary Fund Application

The PACE Youth Theatre Bursary Fund is administered by PACE Theatre Company (registered charity no SCO20060). It has been established to enable young people who find themselves in financially challenging circumstances to take part in our youth theatre activities in Paisley.

Please read the guidelines before completing the application form. If you are unable to provide evidence of financial need and do not proceed with the application. We have limited funds which can only be granted to fund youth theatre places for young people between the ages of 3 and 18 years, living in financially challenging circumstances.
